i had to laugh at one comment you made about caffeine before the race and alcohol afterwards i am so impressed that i have started to train to become an eft practitioner he will praise one gun as the best thing ever made in one video and turn around in the next video condemn the same gun as pot metal garbage.. there was about a week that i thought my son was getting a yeast infection but he had no rash, just little red dots and then one day it just popped up everywhere with the rash and white dots
