childhood eczema may follow infantile eczema, or it may start for the first time between the ages of 2 and 4 years.